“ Dear Father John, We just received notice of your father's passing today (105) as one of my sisters in the Detroit area saw the obituary and sent it to us. [We left Detroit in 1973 and left Michigan in 1986.] Please be assured that our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family during your time of loss.

“ Dear Kasperek Family, Our deepest sympathies on the loss of your husband and dad. Though I was only young when the yearly St. Patricks day parties were in full swing, every memory I have of the Kasperek family is a good one. When words were spoken and stories exchanged where John's name was mentioned it was always with laughter, love and fond memories. May those fond memories help carry you through the sadness and help fill the void I know his loss brought to your lives. With love and sympathy, Colleen Haddas and family (Don and Evelyn Conley's youngest daughter)

“ Greetings to the Kasperek Clan. This is a difficult day for all of you, to say the least. We just found out about the passing of your Dad last night. I feel it marks the end of an era, in some ways. I remember the warm welcome at your home when we were newcomers to Michigan. And the humor and fun that always surfaced when our two families got together. The generation from which your Dad & mine came really is "The Greatest..." They cared about family and sacrificed for family, they worked hard, they endured all things, they were generous. John was patriarch of the Clan and I'm sad for you, in this loss. But he has left behind a number of sturdy souls to carry that same spirit out to the world. I'm sure he is proud of his earthly family - a big and solid family - as he looks down from the heavenly perch he now shares with Edna. God Bless the lot of you! With our best wishes and condolences, Kate and Pierce Kent Lansing MI

“ Dear Special Friends - the sons and daughters of John and Edna, I just hung up from talking to my Mom, and she told me the news about your Dad - and that she, Donna and Dad had a chance to visit with all of you today as you gathered to celebrate the life of your wonderful Dad. I smile inside everytime I think of the the special times that our famiies shared when we were kids. There was always a special bond between us, and I don't think I ever saw two other families whose love, family values and spritual foundation so closely resembled each other. Oh, the songs and laughs we shared over the years, from our times at St. Cecilia's to the St. Patty's Day parties we enjoyed over the years. Your Dad and Mom - along with my parents - were so much a part of those memeories - laughing, loving and guiding us all through those silly growing up times. Your folks must have been so proud of the family that you have become. I cherish your friendship and the memories of those days- and pray that any sadness you may feel with the passing of your Dad is quickly replaced by the joy of beautiful memories. Your Mom and Dad are no doubt dancing in heaven - with their arms around Joey - to "I Love You, how many different ways are there to say..." as Stan and Clare sing along. I love you guys; please know that my life is richer for having had the Kaspareks in it. Though my husband and I Inow ive in AZ, we send our best wishes across the miles. Love, Pat (and Rick)

“ Dear Family: Hello: I was sorry to read about the death of your loved one. I know how it hurts when a loved one dies, and my heart goes out to you in sympathy. I have been comforted with the Bibles promises of those who are now asleep in death will wake up when God?s son, Jesus Christ will use his power in the near future. The scripture at John 5:28, 29 records this promise: ?Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.? The Bibles? promise has aided many to cope during these stressful times and to have the confidence in the Bible based hope of a Paradise earth ?where death would be no more.? {Revelation 21:3-5} With much respect,
