

John R. March

January 1, 1939 - July 30, 2025

John Robert March was born on January 1, 1939, in Detroit Michigan to the union of the late James and Ida Mae March. He was the third child of seven children; His sisters Emma Felder and Shirley Ann March preceded him in death. John married Brenda in 1983. To this union they have two children, Blair and Jerome, Son Tony preceded hm in death.

John was educated in the Detroit Public School. After high school he immediately started his career at the General Motors Company. He worked for General Motors forty-five years as a Millwright until his retirement in 2006.

John was intrigued by many interests. He loved hunting and fishing. He loved sports, especially basketball and football. He was an enthusiastic Gardner and avid Photographer. John enjoyed reading and interpreting scriptures in the bible. He enjoyed reading cowboy books and watching cowboy movies.

John loved family time especially when Blair and Jerome were growing up. He enjoyed taking them to the movies, amusement parks, fishing, the circus and various other family activities. John loved to take care of his granddaughter Zuri. He loved teaching her to draw and how to play checkers. He loved taking her to the park and showing her how to grow things in his garden.

John passed away at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor Michigan.

John is survived by his wife Brenda, two children, Blair March and Jerome March, one Brother James March, three sisters, Betty Duncan, Mary Ann Rowe, and Josephines Powell, special Nephew Kevin Perkins, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Services were held Friday, August 8, 2025 at Vermeulen-Sajewski Funeral Home, Plymouth.

To share a memory, please use the Share a Memory tab on this web page.