“ *I am a Minister of Jehovah's Witnesses my wife and I would like to give you and your family our deepest sympathy for the lost of your loved one. We would like to leave you with these words of encouragement from Gods word the Bible. At Job 14:14 it ask the question, "If a man dies, shall he live again?," The bible makes the promise: Your dead love ones will live...They will rise up. The bible also says, The righteous themselves will possess the earth and they will reside forever upon it. Isaiah 26:19;Psalms 37:29. May you find comfort in these scriptures and in the loving memories of your loved one. “ I'm so sorry for your loss. John will always be in my memories when we share stories of fun times. I remember how he always joined in when the girls and I were dancing. He will be dearly missed.

Sincerely,

“ Uncle John,
I remember you once taking all of us “kids” out to breakfast at an all-night diner somewhere nearby, on Christmas Eve, in the middle of the night, after opening presents and staying up late. It felt fun and cool to do that with you and my cousins. I remember all the hard work you did with Jack, on the cabin and hauling out the sail boats. I remember you sitting around the fires on the beach, and on the front porch, and sailing in the bay. I'm glad Maureen brought you joy. I remember every time we'd leave you would say “I love you.”
