“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is our common enemy as it affects all of us. I therefore want to encourage the family to take heart and be hopeful in the promise by God, that he will wipe every tears and no more will be any death again. Death will be brought to nothing, Isaiah 25:8 and 1Corinthians 15:28. God by means of Jesus will call and all that died will hear his voice and come out. John 5:25. We have an opportunity to see our dead loved ones come back to life again and never to die. What a wonderful moment that will be!

“ I am so sorry to hear of John's passing. I remember playing in our backyard together. Learning how to play pinochle and playing in our pool. How sad. My prayers are with you! Susan

“ Dear family members I just wanted to extend my condolence in the loss of John. when death seperates family members, such great loss can result in deep sorrow. We will not continue to grieve much longer because Jesus stated at John 5:28,29 "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did a good thing to a resurrection of life...." Complete reliance on the "God of all Comfort" will help you endure your bereavement.

“ To the Morawa family, our prayers go out to you. John meant so much to our family as was a great friend. We are blessed to have had him in our lives. My children so enjoyed him He went out of his way to spend time with them when he came to our house to visit. His face always lit up when he spoke about his Mom and his nieces and nephews. He truly loved his family. He's in Gods arms now.
