“ So sorry to hear about your loss. I can see he was loved by many. This scripture always brings me hope when one of my loved ones passes away. Revelation 21:4: " And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." I hope this scripture comforts you as it does for me. Lauren laurenthomas311@gmail.com

“ Dear Elizabeth and family,
We are so sorry to hear of your great loss; he is our loss as well.
What a neat friend he was, even though we had not seen John in years. Like those who you do not see so often, they live in your heart and fond memories. Our kind thoughts go out to all of you.
May John now rest in the loving arms of our Lord.

Our love and deepest sympathy,
Patrick and Marlene Perry

“ I am very sorry to hear of the death of John Neault, I worked with him on a few projects over the years. projects were a in the Plymouth area, or U of M or other locations. I have a very fond memory of my association with John N. I am going to offer some prayers thru the Prayer League at St. Paul of the Cross Retreat Center. may he rest in Peace, this fine Civil Engineer. I also know he worked hard for the local K of C hall in Plymouth
