“ I knew Johnny briefly at the Lifetime gym in Canton. I always enjoyed his company, his small talk and just about everyone knew him at LT. I know he had his ups and downs but he was always very nice and mostly upbeat. I even made jerky for him. May God Bless him. I will pray for him.

“ Dear Johnny O, you will be truly missed! Your smile and laughter brought so much. Thank you for being you and for being my friend. You went thru so much but some how manage to get thru it. I know it's been rough. I believed in you no matter what people would say because you always had a heart. Whatever you were going thru, trust me John, God does understand. You are at peace now, rest my friend.

“ Dear Oman Family, With caring thoughts of sympathy may the Bible's hope of a future resurrection bring you comfort during this difficult time. Almighty God has promised “there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous”. (Acts 24:15) “And death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore.” (Revelation 21: 3 & 4) I am sorry for the pain that you bear and the loss that you're feeling right now.

“ There is not enough room here to list all the ways I'm going to miss the "O" Man. I think most of all I'm going to miss sitting in the bleachers with John, watching the Tigers. He'll be there with me, in memory, every time I go there now.

“ John was great with kids. When he, Eric, and I went down to catch a ballgame (he loved his Tigers) John always entertained all the children in our seating area. Once we took an Autistic Adult (Dennis) with us to Comerica Park. For the first five innings Dennis had no success getting a player to toss him a ball. John went down behind the dug out and orginized the fans in the first couple of rows, making sure that Dennis would get one of the balls tossed up to the kids between innings. In the sixth when a ball was tossed to a young boy, he looked up at John with a smile, and rolled the ball across the dugout roof to Dennis and everybody cheered. That baseball is Dennis' most prized possession. I will never forget this selfless act. Tiger games won't ever be the same without you "Oman"!

“ Dear John & Janis Sorry to read about John. Lossing a child is something that is hard for any parent. Take comfort in the times you shared with him and the wonderful person he was that drew so many people to him. Depite the pain you can find relief in Gods Word. At John 5:28,29 it speaks of a resurrection hope where we can see our loved ones again. Their it tells us "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out ...". Now thats truly something to look forward to !

“ It makes me so sad to know I will no longer hear from Jonny O. He was my fellow Engineer and true friend. He cooked a mean corned beef dinner and shared it graciously. My heart goes out to his families loss. I pray and wish that he is at the peace he so deserves. All I can say is thank You God for sharing my time with Johnny O and AMEN.

“ I am so sorry for the loss of your loved one. The scripture at Revelation have given me comfort. Our creator Jehovah God assures us that even the anguish of death will be done away with, for God promises he "will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Revelation 21:4
