“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. John will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." Soon we will be able to see John again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. John seemed like a really nice guy, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ Jeanette, Jeff & Jody, I am heart broken to hear about Frank. Seems the good ones always go first. I think of Frank playing golf in that big course in the sky. Time does heal all wounds. Ruthan

“ Death has been the hardest thing to understand because it comes to anyone. It comes when we are not expecting it. I want you to know that in any situation we may be, God Jehovah does not ignore. His word the bible says at Psalms 65:5 that he become the father of the fatherless and Psalms 147: 3 that he is healing the broken hearted ones and binding their painful sport. Even if we may have lost our fathers or Mothers, it is comforting to know that God above is watching over us. Yes we will get to see our dead loved ones in the very near future when they come back to life.
