“ Everytime this year I remember my favorite friend and His March birthday. He loved his Birthday because it fell on spring break. I truly loved Jon as a person, he had an amazing gift to make everyone around him laugh and smile. My favorite memories had John at my side. I will miss him always and be regretful we lost touch before he was taken from us so fast. The world will always be at a loss without him here. I know Ross is smiling down at all of us everyday. To Mrs. Ross, you were always John's number one lady and he cherished you.

“ John, Our house is not the same house with out you. It is now only a building.

When the stairs creak at night, I look up to see you in your tennis shoes, but you're not here.

When a blue truck passes by, I strain to see if it is you.

You have left me with the best memories that will be with me all of my life.

I miss you terribly but hope to see you again someday.

I love you, John.

“ I was very saddened to hear of the sudden death of John Ross. I went to Franklin High School with Debbie (class of '74) and have unfortunately lost touch with her since I moved to Australia.
