“ John A. Schimmel

“ From Bob Alescio, Bainbridge WA. We lost one of our own. I've only lost parents before this but never good friends. John was as Brozek called it the patriarch of the Group . I have sensed that too, but never put it quite so well. The only hierarchy we spoke of was the Group, the group bums and then everyone else. but In retrospect, Monkey, was at the top. And I envied him. He had those things evaded me throughout my whole life,wife children, a steady job, good looks. When I am in town he still drive down she Shaftsbury. I always look at the Schimmels and house and remember sitting on the front lawn, parking in the driveway, standing around in the Street, on the block,with the Group. I will miss him. To Rosemary, Dick Mike and all the Schmmels, my heartfelt sympathy and condolences. He was be beloved by all.

“ *Harry and I want to send our heartfelt condolences, prayers, and much love to the Schimmel family. "Our Gang" will miss his wonderful presence at our parties and annual theater/dinner outings. John's stories about his meetings with various pop culture icons were amazing; he was an incredible raconteur. His love of 1920s music compelled us to learn more about the musicians and songs of that time -he was a font of interesting information on many, many subjects. Most importantly, he was simply a very good and kind man.
RIP, our friend.*

“ *With passage of time and distance, sorry I didn't get to know John. He called me in Louisiana for last reunion, and recall his warmth and genuine conversation with updates of our classmates. I've read some of the comments about his reserve nature as a soccer coach and was impressed, reflecting back on my coaching days with my son. His core values instilled at Benny will carry on thru his family.
Warm wishes, Ken Tanana*

“ Where to begin; I am Abi and Anne Morrell Mom and John was the coach of their soccer team The Canton Flames. He was the kinda coach that really cared about the feelings of his players. Abi was the older sister of Anne who played up a year. It wasn't bad enough to have your lil sister to play on your team but she was the lead scorer too. John took Abi under his wing and built her self esteem up. He gave her the strength by believing in her and taught her too believe in herself which she carried through high school and college. John was that kinda man he took his time with the girls not by screaming at them if they messed up but by talking through situations so they realized that as players there are always options. He never put pressure on Anne to go harder play stronger. He knew she would always do her best all he had to do was give her just a little praise. To say the least my girls loved John. The Morrell family loved John on and off the field. After games the kids and the parents always went out together. Sometimes it was breakfast other times it was lunch or dinner. The Flames team was family we all traveled together ate together and celebrated together. We celebrated a lot we won a lot on and off the field. When it was time to make a move to another team I was called a lot of mean names by my girls. They did not want to leave John and their friends. John being the man he was talked to the girls and told them that they would always be friends and nothing would ever change that. He was right all the girls stayed friends through high school. To wind this memory up my point is that John was a man that was not only a Coach but a caring person that wanted the best for all his players. RIP John
