“ To the Vergeldt Family. Please accept my sincere sympathy. I did not know John or the family. Nevertheless, he will truly be missed. "However," I do know the scriptures and the truth it entails. Jesus said: "Sanctify them by means of the truth; your word is truth. (John 17:17).. So, pertaining to what hope is there for our dead loved ones? At: (Isaiah chapter 25 verse 8) says: "He will actually swallow up death forever, And the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. And the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, for Jehovah himself has spoken [it]. If you would like to know more about this wonderful hope of a happy reunion of our dead loved ones please visit our official website www.jw.org

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. John will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with losing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It states, " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see John again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. I hope this gives some comfort.

“ This is loving memory for a very special man. Mr. Vergeldt was the epitome of being gracious and respectful. V Every word he said showed that he cared about your feelings. I never saw him get upset, but always shared kind words. I know you see this as a time of sorrow, but also see this as a time o to celebrate the life of a man who truly cared about everyone. We were lucky to share time with him. Please find comfort knowing that he will go straight to heaven.

“ Dear Vergeldt family, The entire Metevia family is very sorry for your loss. John was not only a "gentleman" but a true "gentle man". Much like the upside down sail on his sailboat to help identify him ... his caring and loving personality as well as his genuine heart was his identity. Thank you for all of your kindnesses through the years and know of our gratitude to John for his goodness.
