“ At Pleasant High School in Marion County , Ohio where Jon was raised we were classmates, he always had my back as they seated us in alphabetical order and since hoo comes before hor there always seemed to be another chair behind me and Jon was in it much of the time. Those were sleepy slow days and they were happy times. Jon always could find a smile to give and was always nice and easy to get along with. I was thinking of you again today Jon and thought i would say something this time.

“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is our common enemy as it affects all of us. I therefore want to encourage the family to take heart and be hopeful in the promise by Jehovah God, that he will wipe every tear and no more will be any death again. Death will be brought to nothing, Isaiah 25:8 and 1Corinthians 15:28. God by means of Jesus will call and all that died will hear his voice and come out. John 5:25. We have an opportunity to see our dead loved ones come back to life again and never to die. What a wonderful moment that will be!

“ My heartfelt condolences go out to the family of Jon Howard. I knew Jon from singing with him in The BeckRidge Chorale. Jon was always upbeat and ready to help anyone who called on him. He was a loving father and devoted grandfather to his precious children and grandchildren. I would see him often, busy about the Lord's work, in the office of the First United Methodist Church in Plymouth as I came into rehearsals for the BRC. Jon, you will be sorely missed by those of us who knew you well! God bless and comfort your family during this difficult time as they grieve your loss. May you see the face of Jesus this day! Now you're in Heaven with Him for eternity!

“ My sincere condolences to Jon's family. Jon was a great man and very kind person. I met Jon in our high school band. I played trombone and he played sousaphone. His junior year, he ask if I would like to be his replacement. He was an excellent teacher of music and we had great times and memories together. We lost touch after I entered the service and went to serve in SEA. Jon will be missed, but our memories of him will live on.
