“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is our common enemy as it affects all of us. I therefore want to encourage the family to take heart and be hopeful in the promise by God, that he will wipe every tear and no more will be any death again. Death will be brought to nothing, Isaiah 25:8 and 1Corinthians 15:28. God by means of Jesus will call and all that died will hear his voice and come out. John 5:25. We have an opportunity to see our dead loved ones come back to life again and never to die. What a wonderful moment that will be!

“ Dear Nina, Theron, Mary and family, Please accept our sincere sympathy on the passing of your father, husband and grandfather. Our friend Karen Horton is visiting us from the other side of FLA, and gave us your sad news. She of course expresses her sympathy too. We know your wonderful memories and your faith will sustain you. LOVE<> Neil, Annie & Karen.

“ Dear Mary and Family, Although it's so difficult to say goodbye to such a great husband, father, grand-dad -- super friend and all-around fantastic guy, but it is comforting to know both: that Joe is now free of the pain and discomfort that hindered him these past many months AND that we now have another great angel-ally in heaven, putting good words in God's ear for the rest of us. Love and Slainte, Mary and Family...and Joe, until we meet again, may God hold you in the palm of His hand, Fred McEvoy Fred McEvoy Fred McEvoy
