“ Joseph Caruana was an outstanding individual and mail carrier for many years at the Dearborn Post Office. His managers often said that he was one of their best and most dependable employees. I never heard a bad word about Joe from anybody. The Dearborn Post Office, his customers and his fellow employees were blessed by his presence and service. He will be sadly missed.

Rest in peace Joe,

We on vacation and took the newspaper with us and were saddened to read about Joe's death. I used to take Joe and his sister Doreen downtown when we we young and lived in cork town to have their communion pictures taken at Steven's, Holland or Hudson's. Two of my brothers worked for his father. I have very fond memories of the entire family. May Jesus welcome Joe with open arms. In loving memory, Juliet Mallia McGlinch
