“ I was so saddened to read about Mr. Cerne. I have taken care of his teeth for many years. He and your mother were a pleasure. I listened when he lost his wife, and listened when he talked of his family. Mr. Cerne was a kind and gentle soul with a great humor. I will miss him (even if its only every 6 months) sincerely, Nancy Bosas

“ Dear Family of Joe Cerne, I remember seeing your dad visit my grandfather's home back when I was a young boy. My grandfather was Frank Padar. I also remember your mom Rose. I think your mom was the daughter of my grandfather's sister. Not sure. Don't have any records to really know. Just wonderful memories of their visits with my grandfather. So sorry to hear about his passing. Sincerely, Joseph Wierbicki 211 Wild Rose Drive Guyton, GA. 31312

“ Sorry to hear about Joe. He was a good friend of my father, Joe Kern. He would come at Christmas time and buy a Christmas tree from my Boy Scout troop. He also helped a another family friend get a job at Fisher Body back in the late 50's. We are related through Rose and the Padar family.

“ I will always remember Uncle Joe for being a kind and loving man. He was a man who loved his wife dearly. I will think of him and my other elders who went before him as happy memories. He will definitely be missed.
