“ It is with tremendous sadness and sorrow that I now send my heartfelt condolences to the wonderful family of a truly special man, Joe Himmelspach. I have had the privilege of both knowing and working with Joe for nearly 30 years and he certainly affected my life in a positive way. As one goes through life their path crosses many different people and I can definitely say that Joe sits at the top of my list as a special person. I learned considerable knowledge both professionally and socially from him and I know I am a better person because of our relationship. So to Joe's entire family I send my deepest regrets and condolences on his passing. Bill Smith
