“ I met Joe when he started working at Federal-Mogul in the credit department in the late 90s. We would share stories of visiting our respective brothers in California and taking them tasty food. When he went to visit he would take Polish sausage made locally, like it was requirement for his visit. Enjoyed parties at the lake after he generously invited his co-workers. We lost touch after he went on to pursue his career outside Federal-Mogul. He was a generous guy and was happy to have known him.

Prayers for strength for Gia, his family, and friends.

“ Years ago had the opportunity to spend time with Joe, Dougy K, Chucky B, and Mike K in one of our early Detroit Titan road-trips. Great conversation and fun had by all. I am very sorry for the loss. Mike. Love ya Titan Brother.

“ Joe was the most kind, generous, and loyal friend anyone could have. Joe and I became fast friends when we worked together at Federal-Mogul in the 1990’s. I became a Detroit Titan basketball fan because of Joe. In the early days, Joe had the coveted entry pass to the Detroit Titan Club, where Perry Watson would greet the donors, and with our drink tickets in hand we could get two beers and rub shoulders with the coaching staff and VIPs. I lost touch with Joe for many years after that, but then he came back into my life. He attended my wedding in 2017 and we resumed attending the occasional Titan game, usually at their annual chili cookoff pregame event. After a Titan game, a trip to Buddy’s Pizza was usually in order. Joe was a first-class person with a really kind and generous heart. I will miss him. I am sure he will be missed by so many.
