“ Memories:

In the early "40s" my brother ,sister & I went to live with the Mitchell family on Ellsworth Ave. Bill Mitchell & I went to Henry Ford Trade School together. We got the benefit of having Joe as an "Adopted" little brother. Joe was always eager to please and help out and even at that time had a great sense of humor.

Thru the years we kind if lost touch but a special affection was always there. He always brought up the fact that my wife Phyllis taught him some useful chords on the guitar. We reconnected in recent years and he told us that he used to tell all his friends that Ken & I were his brothers. That is a special source of pride to me an would be to Ken if he were still with us.

Farewell Brother you will be missed.

“ A sad time for all - Joe was a wonderful Uncle and friend to my family and me. We will miss his humor and chuckle, but most of all the man - Joe. Love Sharron Gross (Mitchell)
