“ I just saw this. I played golf with him a few times at Borrough's Farms. The loser on each hole had to schlep the bag of clubs to the next hole. "Some people are born to lead, some people are born to follow, and some people are born to drag that little cart around." Though I was in the last category, it was fun!

“ Jus heard of Joe's passing. We lived across the street at 935 Virginia for 5 years. Joe and Kay were so wonderful to us and especially to our two daughters who enjoyed a blissful childhood with sweet neighbors. I specifically remember Joe always willing to give a helping hand and if we didn't hurry our driveway would have the snow removed before we were even up! Deepest condolences to Kay and the entire Pasek family.

“ Joe is a very special man, I was blessed to have share a table with Joe on two different occasions during my eight years as a Wednesday morning "Regular Joe". Yes, his jokes were the same year after to year but they sure made you smile. He seemed to understand the need for laughter as he never wanted the harshness of life to break your spirit. Truly a Joyful Disciple. My condolences to Joe's Family,

“ Our deepest condolences go out to the entire Pasek family. Joe was a wonderful neighbor in the 10 years we lived across the street from him and his family. He was always willing to lend a hand to any project and/or problem. Just a wonderful man, always friendly to our entire family. He and my Dad can now talk about cars as much as they want! Rest in peace Joe! God Bless.

“ Joe was an active member of the OLGCMen's Prayer Breakfast for many years. He truly enjoyed coming to learn and share his faith. He was liked by all that knew him. He adopted projects like fixing all the broken chairs in the social hall and finding a box of missing rosaries so he and others could hand them out in downtown Plymouth during music in the park on Friday nights. Thanks for setting a great example to all of us of what a man of Catholic faith does in his marriage and family. Brother Joe, you will be missed. Please save us a seat in heaven.

“ My brother Joe was a very lovable, generous guy. I remember when he returned from military service Korea, and purchased a brand new Chevrolet car. He was so excited and proud of it. He drove it everywhere. After a month of ownership he asked me if I wanted to his new car to school. Oh WOW....back in the fifties only a few cars were parked in the school parking lot. What a thrill to pick up my friends, park in the school parking lot, in this brand new car. A red banner day for me! Thanks brother Joe for that and many other memories.
