“ Oh Joe ,Joey as we call him. The good old days of Inkster. Joey lived across the street and in the day through that time in our life we lived across the street and he was like an older brother to me during my early years of life there. He stood up in our wedding. And will be greatly missed. Goodbye Joey Trainor. Chuck Wheeler

“ In August of 2013, Joe sat with me at the bedside of his sister Judi and waited with me as she passed away. Today he is reunited with Judi and sits peacefully with her inside the gates of heaven.
