“ To the Family of: Josephine L. Gregory. I'm very sorry for the loss of your dear loved one Josephine, she will be truly missed.... Please accept my Sincere Condolences. Although I do not know the Family personally, we share the pain of losing a loved one to death. May you find comfort in God's loving invitation to "Throw all your anxiety upon him because he cares for you."-(1Peter 5:7) For he is "near to those that are broken at heart, and those who are crushed in spirit he saves. -(Psalm 34:18) It is God's desire that you see Josephine again in the very near future when "All those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out."-(John 5:28,29); Rev. 21:3,4; Psalm 83:18) May you find a measure of peace as you read and meditate upon God's promise of a resurrection.

“ Our deepest sympathy on the loss of your beloved mother. I believe my oldest son, Dan, said it best, "What a waste." Mrs. Gregory was such a vibrant, sharp, humorous lady. Danny had the opportunity to speak to Mrs. Gregory just a week or so before the accident. He and she discussed plans for Danny to bring over his fiancée so Mrs. Gregory could meet her. In our family's opinion, this is the end of an era in our neighborhood. May the Lord give you strength to make it through this difficult time.
