“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is our common enemy as it affects all of us. I therefore want to encourage the family to take heart and be hopeful in the promise by God, that he will wipe every tear and no more will be any death again. Death will be brought to nothing, Isaiah 25:8 and 1Corinthians 15:28. God by means of Jesus will call and all that died will hear his voice and come out. John 5:25. We have an opportunity to see our dead loved ones come back to life again and never to die. What a wonderful moment that will be!

“ I have sooooo many memories but a life changing one was when Suzanne pierced my ears and then I had to tell my parents. Another is of all of the polish ham sandwiches we used to eat at the bar in the kitchen...of bowling on the only home bowling alley I've ever seen (in real life).

“ When I think of Jo Janik the first word that comes to mind is spunk. Although I'm sorry we didn't cross paths more in life, when we did I was always touched by her kindness, spark and obvious enthusiasm for life. What a lovely legacy she left behind in the form of so many beautiful families. She will be missed. My thoughts are with you all.

“ We were little girls together, we were always laughing, I remember Toddy saying to us is all you two do is laugh, wish those laughing days were back. This will be the first year in nine years that I will not send you a birthday card, I know we acknowledged each others birthday every year for the last 70 years, but I will think of you and pray for you on your birthday my dear, dear friend. Give my love to all the souls we both knew in heaven. I always loved you. Eleanor

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the family of Josephine. I am a friend of the Jablonski's and I have attended First Friday Mass with this wonderful Christian group. Although I live in Medford, New York I do get emails from Walt and Dolly keeping me informed of this unique group of friends. You are all truly blessed to know that the First Friday Group are so dedicated and caring of each other. Think of all the wonderful "memories" that have been made because of your Mom. God Bless

“ Dear Janik Family, please accept my deepest sympathy. Your mom was one of the bravest women I had the honor of knowing for a long time. She was one among many who battled cancer and won for so long. Her smile will be missed, her friendship cherished, and her sense of humor will always bring a smile to our faces. I will not be able to attend her memorial due to distance; however, your mom will be remembered in my prayers. May each of you be comforted by the knowledge that your mom is now free of cancer and is at peace in God's love.
