“ I have known him for about two years thanks to Shannon allowing me to be part of his life and Elizabeth's life. I am not sure that I have ever met another person who fought as hard as this guy did. I know he has been sick for a very long time and just kept beating the odds no matter how sick he got. I am not sure how you can be that mentally strong, but Joshua did it. The one time he got sick, and got to see him in the hospital his first words to me were "I have to beat death one more time". This guy beat it so many times before and after his hospital stay and I will miss him tremendously. Every time I would come to visit Shannon and the kids, I will never forget his smile at me when I would walk into his room and fist bump him and talk about the latest greatest Star Wars series cuz we are both Star Wars Geeks. Rest in love to a very close good friend of mine that allowed me to be part of his life for the last few years.
