“ Closer To You ... by Mark Shultz Closer to me, I'm tired and I'm weak. Every breath within me Is longing just to be, Closer to You, So I face the road ahead, Cause I know there's no comparing To what's waiting at the end. Let the rain start falling where it will. I will run through this valley just to climb to that hill. If the ask why I'm smiling after all I've been through, It's cause I'm just a day closer to you. Closer to me, I hear you whisper on the wind. You say although my life is fading, A new one will begin. Closer to You, And I know I'm not alone, Cause I can hear you in the distance, Saying, "You are nearly home." Let the rain start falling where it will. I will run through this valley, just to climb to that hill. If they ask why I'm dancing though my days may be few. It's cause I'm just a day closer to You. Closer to me, You're in the laughter and the tears Of the ones I leave behind me Who have prayed me through the years. Closer to You, And I know it won't be long Til You're running down the pathway, Just to take me in Your arms. Let the rain start falling where it will. I will run through this valley just to climb to that hill. If they ask why I'm singing though my life's almost through. It's cause I'm just a day closer to You

“ Steve and Laura. It's hard to find the words to let you know how much Joyce meant to me. She was my cousin and I am so glad that she would call me when she needed something or just needed to talk. She's been part of my life forever. She has won her reward and is in heaven now. I will miss her deeply. Thank you so much for letting me be there at Angela Hospice in her final days. I love you guys very much. And my thoughts and prayers are with you always.
Love, Michael

“ Joyce was truly a "lady" in every sense of the word. She worked with us at Laurel Manor for many, many years and was always professional, kind and caring. I will always remember her walking into our kitchen with a smile and having our Chef Greg yell at her "Well if it isn't Sister Joyce!" That was his nickname for her. We have missed her for the last few months and will miss her for forever.

“ I have had the honor to know Joyce for many years while working with her at Laurel Manor. Joyce also knew my daughter Lisa from Coldwell Banker. Lisa had triplets 2 mo. early and Joyce always found time to ask about Lisa & the babies, and still after they got older! She was always so thoughtful. She was truly a "WONDERFUL & KIND" soul! I know God has a real Angel with him now! She will truly be missed by many. My deepest sympathy to her dear family, Millie Miller

“ Joyce,
You taught me to use Gold Bond powder in my work shoes to keep my feet feeling better. I loved working with you at Laurel Manor. You will be missed, you were such a wonderful lady. Hugs

“ Steve, Laura, and family - I am so sorry for your loss. In the nine years I worked with Joyce she always took the time to share a story and to make me laugh. I have many fond memories of her. She will truly be missed by all of us at JCI.

“ Joyce was a very special lady. Not once did I see her not upbeat, friendly and sweet. She will truly be missed as part of our Laurel Manor Family.
