Joyce Elaine Tschirhart (nee Krohn) long-time Plymouth realtor, devoted wife and mother, and dedicated parishioner at Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic Church, died of intestinal cancer on April 3, 2006 with her family by her side. She and her husband of 50 years, James, enjoyed traveling throughout the United States, Europe, and the Caribbean. She also enjoyed entertaining, having hosted many holiday gatherings, card clubs, and Bible Study groups through the years. A 40-year member of Our Lady of Good Counsel, she was very active in parish affairs and served as a Eucharistic minister. In addition to her husband James, Mrs. Tschirhart is survived by her children: James Tschirhart M.D. (Jill Tschirhart), Patricia Spangler (Thomas Spangler), Robert Tschirhart PhD (Jacalyn Green PhD); Mark Tschirhart, Philip Tschirhart, and John Tschirhart M.D. (Karen Wang M.D.) She is also survived by 11 grandchildren and her sister, Phyllis Tamblyn of Elkton. “ I am so sorry to hear of Joyce's passing. She was a wonderful person. A true friend to Ruby and our family. I am proud to say that I knew her all these years. Together with Jim, she raised a wonderful family of very successful children, of which she was tremendously proud. I know Joyce and Ruby are together again in heaven chatting up their grandchildren.....I hope it brings comfort to you to know that Joyce is reunited with her brother and friend...and will be until eternity.....My love and prayers are with you..Melody

“ I was very saddened to hear of Joyce's passing. She was such a great friend to my mother and demonstrated her friendship and loyalty many times over the years. Even after mom passed away she continued to support the family and helped out with our father's affairs. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.

“ My husband knows Mark one of Joyce's children. Joyce also was the realtor that we purchased our first home from back in 1990. Joyce was always very nice and very supportive. About two years ago my parents listed their property with Joyce. Joyce will certainly be missed, she was professional and honest about real estate and personal issues. Our hearts go out to the entire family.
