

Judith A. Breault

August 4, 1947 - November 11, 2017

Breault, Judi, age 70 of Plymouth. Loving wife of the late Thomas Breault. Fabulous mother of Roxane Swamba (Nathan Andres). Very cool “Boo” of Olivia Swamba. Sister, Aunt, and friend to many. Judi was caring, loving, generous and enriched the lives of those she knew. She loved books, the Plymouth Library, music and the heat, but most of all she loved Olivia. Together they loved to shop, and take vacations to Universal Studios, and Harry Potter. She will be missed everyday and every moment. A Private Celebration of life will be held in her honor. “ Judi was without question a wonderful person and with her honest views, She always brought a needed SMILE with the greatest words about Olivia & Roxie at all times...She will be missed and the memories that were expressed about her husband Tom will be forever cherished...because Judi was honest-Full of Life and an all around person of the moment. I express my heartfelt prayer(s) for this time of her going to be with her husband....and of her physical departure from everyday. She is missed and loved by a great many!!

“ I remember I would go visit my grandma at work when I was younger, we would always have to go say hi to Judi and she would always be so sweet and caring. She would always give me a toothy roll pop which when you were a little kid free candy was great. She will be truly missed.
