“ A final message to Judy, I came to say farewell today and was overwhelmed with the friends and family that gathered to celebrate your life and say so long. I saw so many wonderful pics of you with the people you cherished. Your smile made me cry, to think I'll never open the gate again to say hello and see you there. You have a beautiful smile. I forgot to thank you when I saw you today, for teaching me to make the best taco salad ever, you made it for Pat when he first got cancer, I got that recipe and it's now Judy's taco salad he always asks for. The day you passed, it was hot, miserable humidity and I sat out back with Louie watching for hawks and saw dozens of butterflies. Later Skip informed me and I thought, wow, butterflies carried you to heaven, to a tremendous beach with agates, where there is no pain, just peace.... and rocks! Rest well friend, you will be missed, and when I make Judy's taco salad, I will remember your beautiful smile, kind words and rocks!

“ Ohhhh the memories there are too many to count, from endless rides as an annoying teenager in the black van, to Cedar Point camping, can't forget the best arm tickles, on to weddings and now my own children, Judy has been a pillar in my life and in the life of my family. It has been nothing short of a blessing that I have been able to experience her love from just a crazy teen all the way through adulthood. Judy what an amazing woman and life well lived.

Well cousin, I'm a bit late as usual...just found out today that you're no longer in pain & flying high with the birds & butterflies that you so loved. All those walks you so enjoyed while communing with all your nature friends and fauna can now be anytime at your leisure. You were always such a caring person and your love for Aunt Margaret (give her a hug for me) and all your sisters & friends was such a blessing for us all. What a shining example you have left for all the younger ones. Love you girl.
