“ My thoughts and prayers are with Julie and her family. Julie was a wonder person and will be missed. I know Julie from when she worked in the UM Development Office. She always had a smile.

Debbie Roberts - December 12, 2014 at 10:11 AM

“ My prayers and deepest sympathy to Julie's family and friends. I worked with Julie when she was Executive Director for a Dearborn-based non-profit, She was a warm, engaging and happy person to know.

Barbara Gaston - December 12, 2014 at 10:11 AM

“ I am honored to have been a part of Julies journey the past several years, she was always smiling and enjoying her life with such grace. She beamed when she spoke of her son! She was truely an inspiration. God bless her family

“ My sincere condolences to the Brown family, and I am sorry I am unable to attend the services for Julie, to show my respect and admiration. I could not ask for a better cousin: she truly was a wonderful woman, with a beautiful, kind nature and spirit. I will always remember her smiling eyes and gentle laughter, and above all, her strength and faith, and consideration of others. I will miss her very much.

“ Please know of my prayers for all of you. Julie and I always communicated at Christmas and her messages were always so full of love and hope. Keep that spirit alive! We go back all the way to elementary school and were best friends in high school. A part of me is empty today. Be assured of my prayers for all of you.

“ Dear Julies family, friends and coworkers, it is with real sadness that I realize Julie my friend gave so much of her love to others and was full of the kind of love God asks of us to spread. She did that faithfully in every part of her life. May all of you feel His love and strength as you walk the road called grief.

“ This week I lost a tremendous boss, mentor, colleague and friend. Julie taught me all about annual giving, solicitation codes and ignited my enthusiasm for fundraising. Julie pushed me to do things I hadn't dreamed I could do and I am a better person for her encouragement.
