“ As a young kid we spent a lot of time at Uncle Kenny's and Aunt June's house in Westland...was always a lot of fun, sitting on the side porch during the summer months. My Mom always told us how good Aunt June and Uncle Kenny were to her growing up..RIP Aunt June, say hello to Mom for me!

Yes, I remember mom always talking about all the weekends they'd spend with Aunt June and Uncle Kenny. From what I gather they were always a little more spoiled. I'll always remember going to Aunt June's and the smell of Aqua net hairspray was inevitable. RIP Aunt June.
