“ I'm glad that you were able to put your jihad aside so that we may become friends. Praise be to Allah, mi amigo. I'll take care of your love child bro, I got you. Mother can't take care of her, she's still only 14. I'll miss ya man.

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Kamlaben will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with losing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It states, " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Kamlaben again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. I hope this gives some comfort.

“ Dear Amin Family, I am writing to express my condolences over the loss of your dear loved one. Death is something that was not apart of Jehovah God's original purpose for mankind, that's why at Revelation 21:3,4 it assures us that "God will wipe out every tear from their eyes and pain, sorrow and death will be done away with the former things have passed away. I hope this scripture will be some comfort to you.
