“ My Dearest Sister, it's hard to believe that life has come and gone. Seems like only yesterday that we as kids were tattling on each other to mom. We'll, we made it through that and actually became responsible adults, thanks to mom and dad.

You were a great and loving mom to Michael, Christine and Jennifer. Arts life was cut way too short. You took care of mom for all those years.

I'm sorry you had to suffer so long when it should be time to enjoy our twilight years.

We love you forever and will miss the dimpled wonderful smile. We couldn't ask for a better sister. Rest in peace with the Lord, Karen.

Barb and Mike ❤️
