“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Karen will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with losing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It states, " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Karen again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Karen seems like a really nice lady, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ Some of my favorite memories as a child were Christmas Eves at Aunt Karen and Uncle Terry's. Aunt Karen made the best English muffin pizzas (and amazing macaroni salad at summer cookouts). Aunt Karen NEVER forgot her nieces and nephews birthdays so to all my cousins who think I am weird for knowing ALL of their bdays and middle names... I must have inherited that from Aunt Karen. You are loved and will be missed dearly. Love, Becky

“ My deepest sorrow to the family for the loss of your dearly beloved one, may your hearts find comfort in knowing that Jehovah God and his son, Jesus Christ loves us –John 3:16; Psalms 83:18. Jesus’ death actually opens to us the opportunity for eternal life on a paradise earth. When Jesus walked the earth he performed many miracles which included resurrecting loved ones back to life here on earth. One day soon, we will leap for joy when Jesus resurrects our dear loved ones – John 11:43, 44; John 5:28, 29; Psalms 37:11, 29.

“ Dear Terry, Kim, Cory, David, Richard and John and Families, I am so shocked to hear of Karens passing. We've known all you guys for over 60 years and my heart is so heavy at this time. I wish more and more that over the years we could have gotten together more often. We will keep you all in our prayers at this time of sorrow and I look forward to embrace you on Friday. With all of my love to you all.
