“ George, so sorry for your loss. God blessed you with many loving years, yet it is still so difficult when human life ends. I know she is waiting at God's side to welcome you to that eternal life when our Lord calls you home, as we all will be called one day. I will keep your mom and you in my prayers.

“ George, I was so sorry to read of Katherine's passing. She was one of my favorite people when I worked at the church. I'm sorry that I won't be able to attend her funeral,, as I'm leaving for Florida in the morning. Again please accept my condolences. Marilyn

“ I always enjoyed talking with George's Mom. She was quite the talker, as most know. She seemed to have a gleam in her eye when she spoke and you could tell she sincerely enjoyed interacting with people. Even after her body started giving her trouble getting around her mind and ability to enjoy talking with people was still keen. She will be missed dearly.
