“ My parents and I had the pleasure of meeting Kathy at one of our monthly friends and family dinners years ago, and it was immediately clear that she was the type of person that lit up the room with the glint in her eye, the smile on her face, and her love of those around her.

“ I met Kathy through my husband Lou that worked with Denny. Although we are friends, I think of Kathy and Denny more as family. After Lou's passing, they have both always stayed in touch with us and even came down for my daughter's wedding. Kathy was so sweet contacting me about a special gift she was making for Elizabeth and Brian for the wedding and the gift was absolutely beautiful as were the other items she handmade for them.

Denny, Shawn and all of the family. I'm so sorry about Kathy's passing and want you to know that I'm sending so much love to too all right now and my heart hurts for you. Love, Terri N.

“ *Kathy never let the trials of life get her down. She was a woman of great hope, and deep faith.
May she now rest in the abundance of Jesus' peace.
Condolences to Dennis and the family. My prayers are with you.*

Kathy was a kind, beautiful soul, and a fighter. Her and Denny were a big part of my conversion to Catholicism in the adult faith formation classes. We will miss her and pray for the repose of her soul. God bless you and your family during this difficult time. Bob & Angie “ Kathy never let anything or anyone get her down. We were praying for each other and even in her darkest days she was always so positive. Last time we talked I knew she wasn't doing good but she was still talking about her kids and grandkids. She loved them so much. She was an inspiration to me in so many ways. May she rest in the loving arms of Jesus and be at peace. Will miss you.

“ Kathy impacted my life profoundly. Over the years Kathy played different rolls in it. She was a sister, aunt, mom, mentor, teacher, but one roll was always a constant: friend.

I met Kathy while studying to become Catholic at St. Thomas a'Becket's RCIA program where her and her amazing husband Denny were leaders. Through her, I learned how to have a relationship with Jesus Christ. Through her example, I saw what it was like to walk the path of life with Jesus. Through her, I came to realize that Jesus is love. Through her example, I know that Kathy was love.

Kathy was devote in her faith. Outsiders tend to think of devote people as stuffy or boring. Kathy was anything but. She had such a fun 'give 'em hell' attitude. She loved to stir the pot. I can see her at the gate with St. Peter with a list of much needed improvements to this thing we call life. That's the Kathy I knew.

Kathy was at her best when her salty attitude came out. She would start a story and her face would squint and get this twinkle in her eye just as the story was about to get good!

I know she wouldn't want us to be sad for her. She would want us to celebrate her memory and hold those memories close. I will. Kathy, I love you and am so blessed to have known you. Until we meet again my friend!

- Dave Hawkins

Eternal rest grant unto her, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon her. May her soul and all the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

“ Kathy my dear friend, you will be so missed. Thank you for sharing your friendship with me over many years. You said so many times we were really like sisters and you were so right. I will always cherish the memories. You may not be here with me but you will always be in my heart. Brenda Buchanec
