“ Kayla was such a breath of fresh air! She and Rebecca were connected in so many ways and losing her is a tremendous loss to the world and to those who knew just how special she was 💜 Words cannot express how sorry we are to Greg, Missy, Jessica and Kyle. We are grateful to have had her in our lives and will never forget her sweet spirit and infectious laugh. Oh how I will miss that laugh. xoxo Emma Thornton and family

“ Missy, my thoughts are with you and your family at this very sad time. It's not how things are supposed to be - a parent losing their child. Your wonderful memories of Kayla will always be with you. Take things one day at a time and know how much everyone is there for you and your family, with love and support in whatever you need.

While it was only twice that I shared time with Kayla, her qualities, known by so many others, radiated forth - her intelligence, humor, joyfulness, maturity, inquisitiveness, and creativity. While some kids of her age might offer a quick and insincere hello then disappear, Kayla made me feel instantly and genuinely welcome as if I'd known her and your family for years. It's clear many others experienced Kayla's gifts. Please accept my sympathy for her departure from this world as her soul journeys to eternal life with her our loving Lord. I pray for the repose of Kayla's soul and for the easing of your grief and suffering from her loss. May God's Grace strengthen you, and may your heart and soul find peace and comfort. Eternal rest grant unto her, O Lord, and let the perpetual light shine upon her. May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen. Sincerely yours in Christ, - Bill Blaul
