“ My Sincere Sympathy to the Szmatura Family. I'm very sorry for your loss. Please find comfort and support in these reassuring words of Jehovah God at: (Job 14:14,15) Faithful Job expressed his own hope with these words: "If able-bodied man dies can he live again? All the days of my compulsory service I shall wait, until my relief comes. You (Jehovah God) will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands (God's human creation) will have a yearning(or deep longing and a strong desire to bring back our dead loved ones at his appointed time. Please read (Acts 24:15) If you would like to know about our resurrection hope please visit Jehovah's Witnesses official website at www.jw.org

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Kazimierz will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with losing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It states, " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Kazimierz again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. I hope this gives some comfort.

“ Dear family of Mr. Szmatula, I am truly sorry about your great loss. Please find comfort in God's promises: "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." (John 5:28,29) Just imagine how wonderful it will be when we are reunited with our loved ones right here on a paradise earth.-Psalms 37:10,11,29

“ Dear Mary and Ed, I saw Cass's obituary in the paper this morning. I send my condolence to you both and the grandchildren. I have been out of touch with you Mary for so long and I wish it wasn't like that but I want you to know I am thinking of you at this time. It isn't easy losing your husband I pray for you all.

Love,
