“ I was introduced to Keith over 40 year ago through his wife Jeannine, who I taught with in Dearborn. We were both being art teachers. We had a dear group of friends who would get together to socialize and play Trivial Pursuit. He loved to tease and always made us laugh when he would, so calmly comment, how the women lost to the men. (Keith was the only one who called me M's.) He was a great guy, a loving husband, and wonderful father. He will be greatly missed by all who were blessed to know him...

“ Dave remembers Keith spending hours every year putting up the high school art show in the auditorium. We both remember Keith pulling Beth in the bike trailer around the first loop of the Lake Michigan National Forest Campground. Going on the famous bicycle weekend, TOSROV, in the late 70s, Dave spent Saturday night sleeping on a hard gym floor. Keith slept on a comfortable bed in a motel. We spent lots of terrific times cruising with Keith, Jeannine, Bruce and Mary. Keith seemed to spend most of the time sitting in the hot tub. In Santorini many of us walked up all 554 steps to get to the town of Thera. Keith patiently waited for the cable car. At Thursday Happy Hours Keith often kept us in stitches with his humor – many times Jeannine would be rolling her eyes. What special memories we have of him!

“ I have never known life without Keith. I was 3 when he married my sister. So very blessed to have had him as a brother-in-law! Some of my favorite memories include our discussions on home ownership. I will always cherish how good it felt when he would compliment different things relating to my decorating or gardening efforts. His expertise in those areas made his comments so meaningful. I am going to miss you, Keith!
