“ Sandy I know what a difficult time it is for you.
We treasured Keith and Joan as good friends for so many years.
We watched you and Susan grow up.
We missed Joan and saw Keith adjust to life without her.
When he and Martha committed to each other they had different interests and hobbies and adjustments to a new life. We had them over for dinner and had dinner at Keith's before their Ceremony. I appreciated getting to know Martha and was glad Keith was no longer alone.
We will always treasure our friendship with your parents, rides in their plane, Keith taught Tom how to change the oil on his car, we love his wooden bowls and the stained glass window he made that is hanging in our sunroom.
Keith invited us down to his condo in Florida and we had some long talks, watched beautiful sunsets, walked through pretty gardens and played cards with their neighbors.
He demonstrated how to make wooden bowls to Peter's boys and played the player piano for them.
He was always giving. He was so talented.
I am sorry he has to endure sufferings from medical conditions at this time.
I am so glad we got to see you today and you and Jenny are good friends.
I can only offer prayers at this time; but if you ever want to talk don't hesitate to call.
You have a lot of responsibility in your position and I know it must be hard to balance all of this during this most challenging time.

“ My first memory of Keith, and Joan, was when I and my family went to Detroit for the wedding of my brother Nenad and Sandy. It was a rather hectic time, so I can't say I learned to know him wright than. The only thing I remember is how beautiful their wedding was, and what a great speech Keith made. But after visiting the next coming couple of years we met more often, and I learned that he really reached out to this foreign family, coming to visit from Sweden now and than. He and Joan always had us for dinner at their house, drove us to or from the airport, borrowed their car, socialized with us even though they didn't need to. He even invited my whole family to a trip with his plane, witch my kids loved, and I probably wood had to, if I hadn't felt so sick 🤢 so yes, I'll remember Keith and I'm sorry he didn't get some more time to enjoy life, and be there with his family. Heaven has won another angel 🙏 Dear Keith, say hallo to Joan, my and Nenad's mom Ljubica and dad Blagoja. We will remember and miss you ❤️ regards from your Swedish relatives ❤️

Dear Susan and Sandy and spouses,
We were so honored to have known your mom and dad. I make Joan's Tiramiso Torte and always think of her when I do. Your dad gave us one of his beautiful bowls for a wedding gift. We enjoyed a wonderful day with Keith at the airshow at Mettetal. We always enjoyed meeting and talking with you at the parties in your parent's home. And of course, we were happy when he met Martha and had a companion to share the remainder of his life with. Sending thoughts of happy memories to you. May you be comforted by the good times you shared together. Love, Ellen and Don Bain
