“ To Mr. Davis' Family:

Although I am 59 myself, Mr. Davis will always be "Mr. Davis" to me. Mr. Davis was my seventh grade "Common Learnings" teacher at Pierce in the '59-'60 school year. Mr. Davis was just about my favorite teacher I ever had. Mr. Knight at Jefferson Elementary was another favorite if anyone knew him.

One time Mr. Davis read a part of one of my papers to the class. It read in part, " He then fell and his head hit a rock and broke it." Mr. Davis, in front of the class, asked me, " What broke, the head or the rock?"

As I stood there as a seventh grader with nothing to say, everyone started laughing. I finally started laughing too, and I got his point about what I had written. I have never forgotten that, and since that poorly written sentence, never did that again.

Mr. Davis was a great teacher. I got to know him as an adult running recreation programs in Redford, and later, as a Trooper with the MSP. Funny that after retiring from the MSP I am now teaching in South Redford. A lot of my success goes to Mr. Davis and great teachers like him.

The last time I spoke with Mr. Davis he was taking me home from the Dodge dealership. We had a great time talking.

We all will miss him dearly.

God Bless, Bob Garcia

“ In the forty years I have known Ken I have only good memories. Both Ken and Adelaide were always so loving and giving. I remember when Jeff and I first married they helped us out with many things to start housekeeping. When Jenni came along they were like an extra set of Grandparents for her. Adelaide was my Mom's best friend so there were many shared times with both of them. Even last year when he didn't even feel that well Ken came to my Mother's memorial service. I will miss him very much. With blessings and prayers, Lori
