“ Ken Johnson changed the life of one of my closest, oldest & dearest friends....his wife Tammy Johnson! He gave her so much love, support, humor, friendship....he gave her his whole self and then some! He was selfless when it came to the love of his life & provided her with all that her heart desired. And she in turn gave all that she has to Ken! Tammy posted pictures on Facebook of her & Ken all the time. You could see the love, the happiness & their contentment in those pictures which was really beautiful & heartwarming to see! I've known Tammy for so many years. I know her eyes, I can see when she is truly happy, or sad or when she is just living day by day. Being with Ken, her eyes were sparkling, overflowing with joy & happiness!! This was a once in a lifetime love! I only wish that they would have met sooner! Finding each other was like each of them finding their own personal treasure! Ken will be dearly missed! Not only is Ken personally going to be missed, but his relationship with Tammy will also be missed! ! I thank Ken for coming into Tammy's life & for all that he meant to her!

“ My son was full of love and shared it with those of his family and friends. He had such great stories of growing up in the beautiful state of Montana and I'm sure he added some color to them! I always loved my phone talks with him. Always so upbeat and I would close with a smile on my face. He did his thing and lived his life. And the best part was the love of his life Tammy. They had a love that I feel carried over from the love his Dad and I had and also his brothers and their wives have. Love for each other and at times only needed each other. I know I said love a lot. But that's what it is all about. Be at peace my son and feel your Dad's arm around you saying it's okay I'm here for you and it's so good to see you again. God looks on and smiles-----

KE

Ken, was my older brother. A typical older brother, competitive, over bearing, hard to please and made you work hard to gain his respect, his father's image. He was also a no nonsense man who would always have your back, help untangle a tough project and tell you when your face was dirty. No gray areas with Ken, you knew where you stood. He loved his life, not the separation, but the fact that he in large part was his own man, on his own terms. Not a perfect man, but a loving son, husband, brother and uncle who will be missed. Candace, Dylan, Zach and myself pass our deepest respect and love to Tammy, who came into Ken's life and completed it.

“My fondest memory of Ken is how much he loved Tammy. He was perfect for her and she for him. He was a good friend to all that knew him- always there with a helping hand. I also loved his determination to rid squirrels in his bird feeder- yet... he loved them too- he had a wonderful sense of humor! God rest your gentle and giving heart Ken. ~Kathy Stowell
