“ I grew up next door to Mr. & Mrs Reimann. I can always remember him working out in the garage whistling up a storm. He seemed so cheerful and definitely had a mischievous twinkle in his eyes. Lora Trout-Lingeman.

“Mr. Reimann had the type of personality that no matter how down you were about your schoolwork or music or social ills, he could always make you laugh, and take yourself less seriously. I will miss him and my heart and prayers go to Kendel and Tracey and family.”

“ Nick and I (Linda) would see Ken at Kendel's house for one of the girls birthdays...he was always so happy and smiling and always had something funny to say. Nick and Ken would talk alot about cars and try to straighten out this crazy world. He would tease his grand-daughters...cause he got a big chuckle, he loves those girls. He will be missed by all that knew him.
