“ It was very saddening to have received the news of “Uncle” Ken’s passing. I will always remember his jocularly and positive outlook.

As a youngster of 10 or 11, “Uncle” Ken took me out for a round of golf at the par 3 course. After a while, we were on the back nine and I teed up the ball on 16, I wound up and let it rip. “Uncle” Ken had been giving me advice all day, and as the ball took off he got very excited. I had hit a good shot. Then he got more animated and started jumping up and down. Suddenly, a loud “bonk” rang out, I had hit the pin. “Uncle” Ken was yelling he had never seen anyone hit the pin from the tee before. He was more excited than I was. Of course it was not a hole in one. I was so distracted by his enthusiasm for my tee shot, I proceeded to 4 putt. To this day, It is the only time I have hit the pin off the tee.

Thanks for that round of golf “Uncle” Ken. I am looking to catching you on God’s back nine.

Jennifer, Matt, and Mike, sorry I cannot make it up to Michigan to celebrate your dad’s wonderful life. Find some tears of happiness amongst the tears of grief. Take care of you mother and give her a few hugs from me.

George

*Dear Family,
Although I knew Ken was ill. His passing came as a shock. Please know that all of you are close in prayer. Toni, my heart is breaking for your loss. I loved Ken. I am so happy we had the chance to spend time together in April. He will be greatly missed. My love, as always. Noella*

“ He was my neighbor we would meet in the driveway and discuss everything from the weather to current events. He was such a nice guy. He would ask about my wife who was battling cancer and I would ask about his wife who had health concerns. My heart is broken, we are praying for the entire family. Al/Dacia Bowers
