“ I am a Minister of Jehovah's Witnesses my wife and I would like to give you and your family our deepest sympathy for the lost of your loved one. We would like to leave you with these words of encouragement from Gods word the Bible. At Job 14:14 it ask the question, "If a man dies, shall he live again?," The bible makes the promise: Your dead love ones will live...They will rise up. The bible also says, The righteous themselves will possess the earth and they will reside forever upon it. Isaiah 26:19;Psalms 37:29. May you find comfort in these scriptures and in the loving memories of your loved one. If you have any questions or concerns about the lost of your loved one feel free to email us at ctksdk@yahoo.com Sincerely, Carlos & Sandy

“ Sorry to hear of your loss. The Bible describes death as an enemy. - 1Corinthians 15:26. One day we won't even talk about our loved ones dying. Can you imagine such a time? Reading about it has brought me comfort and I pray it will give you a measure of comfort as well.- Revelation 21:4

“ We send our condolences to all of Kevin's family and friends. Although we didn't know Kevin well, he was a great neighbor and always willing to lend a helping hand. If his two boys are any reflection of the kind of man he was, I am sure he was as great of man as he was a neighbor. He will be missed! We send our love and prayers to Robbie, Owen and Logan.

“ What a man. Like his picture above, I always saw him smiling. He took care of his family, his friends, his neighbors. If you asked of Kevin he gave freely. If you needed Kevin he came to your side. Kevin fathered 2 fine young boys/men. Who I'm sure he is proud of. Plus he chose a heck of a women to spend his life with. It goes without saying we will all miss him. I'm also a better person for knowing him.....
