“ Dear Ciindy and Matthew. I was shocked and saddened to learn about Kevin's passing when I was reading the obituaries in the paper. I worked with Kevin at Fingerle Lumber Company many years ago, and it was a pleasure. I'll remember him as a very gentle and smart man. I remember I told him once that he looked like the actor Wilford Brimley from the movie "Cocoon", and he said to me something like "Paz, if I had a dollar for everyone that told me that, I'd be a wealthy man!" My condolences go out to both of you. Take care. Paul

“ Dear Cindy, I feel blessed to have first met Kevin through being a member of PCA prayer partners. He came regularly, prayed diligently and was an encourager. In the way he spoke about you he made it very evident that you and Matthew were very special to him. We pray faithfully for our spouses as well so you were prayed for; and please know that we will continue to do so. He was also always a willing contributor of food for our teacher appreciation days. Unfortunately I did not get to taste them. What I did get to taste is his love for the Lord as expressed in the way he lived and served. He had a wealth of knowledge and so it was always helpful to go to him with questions. His deep faith was also evident in words of wisdom that he spoke. We will miss him dearly. Marina Francis

“ Dear Cindy and Mathew, We were so shocked and saddened at the death of Kevin. It was good to see you Cindy at Ed's Funeral. How could you imagine that you would be walking in Vie's shoes so quickly. You will be in our thoughts and prayers. We will be in New York for the graduation from HighSchool of our oldest grandson, Nate, who is Daniel and Mary's son. We will see you when we return. May God's loving presence be deeply experienced by both of you in your grief at this time. Kevin was a dear man and we have great memories of occasions together. Much love, Jim and Priscilla Carlson

“ Dear Cindy, we've never met, but like many people, I knew Mr. Hagelin. My son, Ray, is a friend of Matt's. Mr. Hagelin coached Ray on the Middle School Boy's baseball team. He was always kind, responsible and helpful to everyone. On many occasions, he drove Ray back home after practices. I regret not having thanked him enough for all he'd done. We couldn't believe it and still haven't accepted that Mr. Hagelin had left us. Knowing that he is God's man and is in heaven is little comforting. We are sorry for the tragic loss and we pray that God will help you through this hard time, Wen and Ray Dai.

“ Dear Cindy and Matthew, I am just heart broken. Your husbanddad was such an encouragement to me. He constantly asked how he could pray for me and my family. That meant the world to me and I will truly miss him so much. I know he is in heaven with the God he adored. My heart is with you and please know that now I will now be praying for you every day. I love you both! Caryn Huntsman

“ Cindy and Matt, We are so sorry to hear of Kevin's passing. We rejoice that he is with our Lord, but grieve that he is gone so soon. He was a joyful presence when he would come into the church office, and the love he exhibited for his son was so strong. My memory of Kevin is mostly of him laughing and cheering on my 5 year old son (while watching Matt) in the church's gym on Wednesday nights. He was so nice. God is almighty and He is with you, as surely as Kevin is with Him today.

“ I am so sorry for the loss you are experiencing at this time. Kevin was a constant encouragement to myself as well as our school. He always had something nice to say and was always sharing the great knowledge and wisdom he possessed. He will be greatly missed! May God be comforting you during this time and may His abundant mercies overflow on your family.

“ We want to extend our deepest sympathy and prayerful support to both of you cindy and Matt during this sad time. Kevin was always ready with a happy hello and a compliment to our sons at all times. We wish only wonderful memories for you now as God helps you to see his purpose. Please let us know what we can do now and in the future to help make this loss any easier to bear. Kevin's love for you both was so evident in his speaking of you everyday. You will not be far from our thoughts and prayers. Ron, Teri, Tiffani, Ben & Chris Merbler

“ Dear Mrs. Hagelin and Matt, I am so sorry for your loss. Your Dad was a good man and was always nice when he subbed at PCA. I know your Dad was very involved and volunteered for all your sports. I remember how he would cheer for all the guys in Basketball. It was easy to see how close you and your Dad were. I will pray for you and your Mom during your time of grief.
