“ Where do I begin... my wingman for quite some time. Spend countless hours together with our hotel stints in San Diego , LA and Palm Springs. We loved la bouche and sang at the top of our lungs in his black convertible mustang. We spoke on the 27th of December and we sang the song. Rest in power my friend. Will never forget you. Hector M.

“ Love you Kevin. Thank you so much for being so good to my mother and I. We were so blessed to have you for so many years. You are and always will be family to us. Loved and cherished for eternity. It's so hard knowing that I won't get your calls or daily texts anymore. My heart is so heavy. We were so fortunate to have you for as long as we did. There is so much more to say, but my eyes are filling with tears. Thank you buddy, for all the good times and memories. Wish I could hear your voice or hug you one last time...💜

“ Still unbelievable! This is a BIG hit for the class of '80! Everyone was Kevin's friend. If he saw you were going through something he'd reach out! I've known him since elementary and we had lots of laughs over the years! He turned into a real Hollywood star while in California, yet was never in a movie. He just had that flare about him and lit up a room! Paula and family please know you are in my thoughts and prayers. I can't make the funeral as visiting his 2nd home - Cali! Fly with the angels Kevin! Gone too soon but we are all blessed to have known him! Love yah Kevin in will miss you terribly!

“ So sad to see him go....but when Kevin decided he was “done” that was his decision. He fought until he couldn’t. The heavens will have a purple hue from this day forward. Rest easy, Kev!!
