“ I was so saddened to hear of Kevin's passing. Although we regrettably lost touch not long after High School, my memories of him are strong. I see from reading the other posts that the great guy I once knew had done nothing but improve on that greatness. To his family and friends, I am so sorry for your loss, and you are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Kevin, I don't want to sound like a broken record....but when it comes to you Kevin, we all have the same thing to say. You were truly one of a kind and your place in all of our lives will never be filled. the sweet memories of you will remain in my heart forever. Looking back I can't remember a time when I have ever seen you without that beautiful smile on your face. I know that through the years our visits became few and far between but, you were always in my heart and thoughts. I remember our last visit we had lots of laughs but I could see that you were sad. It was in your eyes....remember?? and we had a heart to heart as in why. I'm not going to share that conversation on here. All I'm going to say is that you're free now sweetie...you're home and all of that sadness will now be fulfilled and you will be truly happy for eternity!! As to why and how you were set free.....Please know in your heart and forever lasting soul that it's alright!! Don't worry yourself about if anyone is mad or they don't understand.....the people who truly love you, understand. It's just that you are loved by many people who have had the privilege of having you in our lives. With that Kevin.....BE FREE LET YOURSELF BE FREE!! I love you and will miss you always Jo Jo P.S. I asked my Mommy to take care of you and I know she will!!!

“ It can not be said too many times what a wonderful person Kevin was. We are deeply saddened by his passing. There are many stories to share. One that many people who have not had the chance to see Kevin as often in the last few years is his love of children. With the birth of our new daughter, Olivia, came a whole new language from Kevin. He would sit there and goo-goo and ga-ga with her as if he were actually having a conversation. Emma always new that Kevin would push her on the swing and watch her ride her bike. That was what Kevin was always doing. At every function Kevin would be with the kids wiping faces, holding hands, pushing swings and making sure the kids were safe. Kevin will live on through our memories, the stories we share and in our dreams. We all have his past now God will have his future. Until we see you again!

“ My deepest condolences go out to the family and friends of Kevin. Kevin and I moved next door to each other nearly 10 years ago. Every conversation started with a smile and a laugh. Kevin always had something funny to say, the cleanest truck, and the nicest yard! I will truly miss him and the over the fence conversations. With great sadness, Dennis DelGiudice “ Kevin is truly a one in a million!! From his smile, his charm, his generosity, his heart of gold, his laughter, his HUGS, his graciousness, his thoughtfulness. I adored him for who he was and what he stood for. The guy everyone called upon, the guy that would always put a smile on your face. The guy that always made you feel welcomed. The guy always made you feel loved! The Perfect Gentleman! I Love You and I Miss You Tremendously! You are Irreplaceable!

“ Kevin was my ex-fiancee. Me and Kevin had are ups and downs but through it all we were still friends. He was the one person I could count on all the time. He was my prince, cause everytime I was a damsel in distress he would save me. There are so many memories of Kevin, I cherish eveyone of them. I will miss you with every passing day and love you endlessly. I know you would of done the same. The world was a better place with you in it~ It will never be the same without you.

“ Kevin was a wonderful loving and caring person, he touched my heart in so many ways; he will never be forgotten. With Kevin, it didn't matter if it was a week or a year that had gone by, he would greet me with a huge hug and a smile. He had a beautiful smile that would light up your life. He was loved by so many and will truely be missed. Kristine

“ You are a true friend that I knew would always be there for me. Even if I did not see you for months, all it would of taken was a phone call and you would have been there. The fact that you would have done that for me even though I live six states and two time zones away makes our friendship even more meaningful. I will miss you my friend.

“ Kevin and I used to play football from my yard across the street to his. He couldn't belive what an arm I had for a ten year old! Kevin was very close to me because he was there when nobody else could play and he would stop what he was doing to play even if he was washing his truck! Kevin will always be special friend to me. I talk to him every day. I will miss him a lot! He always made me smile!! Kevin I love you!!!

“ I called Kevin, Pepsi Boy! Reason being he was so hot and everytime he went out he would pick me up a Pepsi. We had so much fun watching him take care of his yard and almost washing the paint off the F150! I am from Boston and one nite the Red Sox were playing the Yankees (yuk!) So Kevin turned his big tv so I could see it from my yard. It was so funny because on the right side a little branch was blocking 1st base. Next thing I know he is out there with a saw cutting the branch down so I could see! Now thats a special friendship right there! I loved him and will miss him very much!

“ Kevin was the cutest guy in the plant, we called him HOLLYWOOD. I miss the days when he would leave welts on me from slashing me with rubber parts from the car, or shoot rubberbands across the line hitting me in the face, I hated when he put that sticky tape in my hair, he got a kick out of that, put a big smile on his face, he knew I hated that. Sometimes he would fill my lunch box with small screws and parts, thats just the kind of guy he was, made work fun. I looked forward to seeing kevin at work in flatrock he left back to livonia after about two years of working with him, I sure miss the goofing around and the SUPER nice smile he had, I told him you have the nicest smile he said, you sound like my grandma. My prayers are with kevin and his family.

“ I was friends with Kevin in H.S.; he was a great and happy person. I have run into him a few times since H.S. and my ex-husband worked for his dad for quite some time (Brian Furness); he always had a smile on his face. I am very sorry for your loss during this difficult time. Kevin was a great guy and will surely be missed!

“ I've known Kevin maybe 10 years, since he moved into our neighborhood. His helpfulness was always appreciated by my mother, and myself. He's freeflowing humor, and laughter was contagious. The way he adored the kids was loving to watch. His love for his family was apparent in his words. Faith was strong and will guide him to eternal life forever. May you rest in peace my friend, you will be missed by all your friends on Bunker Hill. Darryle W. Davis

“ I was just thinking back to how long I've known Kevin, back to when we were about 12. Regardless if it's been a few weeks since I saw him last, it was like just yesterday. Kevin touched so many people, in so many ways. I will forever be grateful for his friendship, and all the times we had. My thoughts and prayers go out to his family, and all of us friends at this time.

“ People always ask me, "how many siblings do you have" I always respond with one blood brother and seven others...Kevin was one of them...I will always remember how he was there to help my brother and family out. He was the best Uncle Kevin to our family dog. He would watch Harley whenever he was able. Kevin, I will never forget you, you will live in my heart forever...I love you and never will stop.

“ Kevin was one of a kind. He was a great and true friend. We had been friends for almost 15 years. He was the friend you could always count on no matter what the situation, what he was doing, or how long it had been since we had last talked or hung out. He was unselfish and his heart was true. I personally loved the hugs, the pats on the head or words of encouragement he always had for me, the fact that he could make me or anyone for that matter feel better with just a smile, goofy comment or even a smart remark. We all had so many good times, way too many to list. Kevin had such a positive effect on so many people. I truly hope he knows how much he was loved and appreciated, even if the words weren't always spoken. I have so many fond memories of my friendship with Kev, he will live in my heart forever. My thoughts and prayers go out to his family and his friends at this time of sorrow. He will be missed by so many and our love for him will never end.

“ A true friend! The one you could always count. ALWAYS! Moving, landscaping and of course cleaning. His heart was made out of gold, he helped even when you didn't think you needed any, but he knew you did. From vacations together, to 4- wheeling at burge's, to bomb fires, the barn, hunting, cars, car show, girls, spring breaks, buying houses, tiger, wings and lions games, concerts, borrowing each others tools, ARMOUR - ALL, to helping, kevin was a friend, a brother and a son - I LOVE YOU, BRO!!
