“ Speaking on behalf of the Detroit Red Robin family I want to send love and prayers out to the family of Kevin ❤️. Kevin was very passionate about his job as a manager for us. For me personally he always came to me with advice and love for anything I had going on. He always spoke highly of his kids and wanted me to meet his son because he felt we both were alike in many ways. We always just spoke about real life things more than work itself. We even had a “toy wall” in Detroit where we’d collect toys and talk about how many we got in one day. They were a staple in Detroit. His energy was big and he had an even bigger heart. So sorry to hear about this loss of a great man. Sending love ❤️ - From Trey

“ I met Kevin at York High School when his family moved to Elmhurst. We met in English class and were friends through high school and into college. Unfortunately we lost touch after.

Kevin had a great sense of humor and had an infectious laugh. He was very kind and a truly decent person.

My condolences to your family for the loss of Kevin, and Kevin and you will be in my prayers.

“ Kevin has been my closest friend for nearly my entire life. I have so many memories of our time as friends, countless adventures and even some misadventures. I will hold onto them because they are precious. I know this is a terrible loss for his loving family. Just know that Kevin loved you with his whole heart. Over the last few years, every time he and I spoke, he gave a full update on everyone he loved, his children and Michelle, Mom, the Chris's, Amanda, his aunts and cousins, and all of his friends from high school. I got to know about everyone's lives through him. He was a great father, husband, friend and mentor. I will hold onto those memories he gave me. Until we meet again, my friend.

“ I have lost a best friend, and Kevin was like the brother I never had.....

It is with absolute sadness, emptiness, and grief that I learned on Sunday afternoon of the sudden, and totally unexpected passing of one of my best friends of 45 years, Kevin Rosche.

We go back to high school, and have seen so much together. Best friend, best man at my wedding, and like the brother I never had.

When I got the phone call, it was like someone cut me down at the knees, ripping my soul out, and I unashamedly fell to the floor, and began weeping uncontrollably.

I think of all we have seen and done together in this life, the wonderful times, and the heartaches that friends like us have seen and suffered, and yet he always would look to the positive, always with his unshakable faith and beliefs.

He had found his soulmate in his wife, after searching for years, and I can't even imagine how they are coping this day, if I feel the way that I do, today.....

To his wife Michele Morgan Rosche, his children, his brother Christopher Rosche, and sister Amanda Christianson, I can but say I feel like I have lost a brother, and the grief is overwhelming.

I can but take some comfort in the fact, that Kevin is now with his Christ, because I have never seen anyone who always professed his faith in God, and lived his life, putting his Savior, first in everything he did.....

As Phil Cuthbert said, as we talked on the phone last night, “He took the very best of us....”

Kevin absolutely lived a life of goodness, and he now dwells in the house of the Lord, forever more....
