“ Kevin, You were a good sweet person! I only knew you for a short while thru business but you were always honest and sincere. I pray you are no longer in any pain and are enjoying heaven the way GREAT people like you should! Sincerely, Liz

“ Kevin, What can I say? I can't believe you're gone. I have so many memories from Germany and mostly involve you; from "initiating" new soldiers to having a home away from home. Every Sunday morning I could count on having breakfast in your room and on Christmas we could open the presents your mom sent. I'm going to miss you, my dear friend. I know that you're finally out of pain and watching over your family and children as they grow. RIP dear friend.

“ Kevin, You were one of the first people I met when I got to Germany and you were a good friend. I only wish we were able to spend some time together like we were planning. You will be missed.

“ Kevin was a dear friend and a great brother in and out of the Army. We talked so many days and nights and shared the stories of what we wanted in life and I know this is not what he wanted but God did and I know Kevin is up there making him laugh uncontrollably. To Kevin, we miss and love you and the memories will stay imprinted in our minds and hearts.

“ Now the lord father god has called you home, may he keep you safe and out of harms way. You will be surely missed and the memories we had were great ones. From pulling pranks on unsuspecting victims to sharing a drink or two. Now there is no more suffering in the back, and only joy on the other side. I shall see you again when it is my turn to come home. So Rest In Peace my friend and talk to you soon!

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Kevin will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Kevin again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Kevin seems like a really nice guy, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ I had the pleasure of meeting Kevin last summer at a veteran event that we hold annually in the Irish Hills area, He was a really nice guy, He set up a booth at the event on behalf of Soldiers Angels and spoke to people about the wonderful things that they do. I am so sorry for your loss, please find comfort in knowing that the sacrafices that he made for our country will never be forgotten, God Bless you and your family and may Kevin rest in peace in a land where there is no pain.

“ I'm so thankful that your life touch mine. That I had the honor of sharing these past twenty one years with you as one of your best friends, or as you called me, Mom. Oh the amazing memories I have. They put a smile on my face and make me laugh. You were a kind, caring, compassionate, gentle soul who liked having fun at no matter what you were doing. I'm so proud of you Kev, and how you loved and served your country. Proud of you for the metals you earned. I'm still in shock and my heart feels like it's breaking in two. I'm not going to say good bye. Until I meet you on the other side in Heaven Kev, remember....I love you son.

“ I am still at a loss for words. Kevin, you were an amazing person with a heart of gold. It is unfair to those of us on earth that you were taken away from us so early. I have faith that God has a bigger plan and thats why you went. To Kevin's family---my condolences. He would want you to smile for him.....know he's somewhere far better then here and he's watching over us.
