“ I just picture him standing around, laughing at the antics of everyone around him at all of the many get-togethers over the years. He had a great smile and was always so kind. Condolences to the whole Price family.

“ Never had a better grilled salmon than the one we whipped up that day on belle isle. Or the trips to the quarry driving all over the state just for a good time. I always knew if you were along for the ride, it was going to be epic. Thanks for being a brother to my brother; and although it's been years, I still think of you as family. You might be gone from this dimension but I'm certain you're spirit will never fade. You always made people feel seen and that's the essence of life. I'm proud to say I knew you and wish you were still around to say hey. RIP.
