“ *Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Kim will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Kim again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Kim seemed like a really nice lady, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort.

“ *Dear Danielle, Stephanie & Allison: I was so surprised to hear that your mom had passed away. Mrs. Lopata, Mrs. Dugas and I came yesterday to offer our sympathies and gived each of you a special hug. It's always hard to loose a parent, but especially our moms. Please give your dad our condolences. We will pray for you that the hurt in your heart won't last too very long. Just remember all the wonderful memories you have and they will help you get thought this difficult time. Your step-dad and little sister seem really nice.

“ Our condolences to David and his family. Kim was always happy and fun to be around. She was a pretty amazing mother and wife. We were fortunate and blessed to know her. Have nothing but happy memories of Kim in Greenbush... cookouts, hanging out at the cabin, lake street over looking the water, on the beach, at beach fires with smores. Creating memories is part of life and she gave us some good ones. We will miss her, her smile and joy she shared with us. God Bless. Love, Terry and the Willett family.

“ Sending out my deepest condolences to Kim’s husband, Dave, and her amazing children, Danielle, Stephanie, Allison, Brianna, Jacob, Rachel and Christian. Kim was my very dearest and closest friend. It is the hardest thing for me knowing that I cannot pick up the phone and call her just to talk about our lives and families. I didn’t get to see Kimmie as much as I wanted to, but to know that we talked almost every day and to know that we were always there for each other was enough for our friendship. I loved Kimmie more than words can express. We always teased each other that we should have been sisters. I just do not know what I will do without her. She was the greatest person that I ever met and her life was too short. We had so many things that we wanted to do together. She brought so many people joy and happiness. She was an amazing woman who will be missed dearly! I love you Kimmie!! My bestest friend!!! I know that you are at peace and watching over your family from heaven.

“ I send my deepest sympathy to Kim's loved ones in this time of loss. She will live on in our thoughts and will be sorely missed by everyone who knew and loved her. Our heavenly father has promised to undo all the pain and loss some day. The bible says "He will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning, outcry nor pain be any more." (Revelation 21:3,4) May that hope give you strength in the coming days.
