“ Thinking of everyone during this difficult time. Kim was always a ray of sunshine at Financial One. She always brought me her leftover icing and I think of her every year at thanksgiving when I make her incredible pecan bars (using her shortcut to make it easier!). May her memory be a blessing. “ We met when our girls cheered together. We shared laughs, homecomings, dragqueen bingo and alot of fun!
We walked in the breast cancer walk together, shared more laughs, lunch and counted our blisters.. so much fun!
Kim made my son's first birthday cake. She loved to bake, and you could taste it. Even when she moved to Kentucky, when she would come home, I would beg for cupcakes! 🍰
Keeping Brian, Erin, Austin and so so many others who loved her so much in my prayers. Love you Kim. You will be missed!

“ Beautiful Kimmy ❤️
Kimberly has a smile that we will Never forget . The gleam in her eyes as she pushed to the danger zone lol That's the zone that would make you laugh so hard you would pee !
Her kindness was amazing and boy could she bake a cake ! Her kids and husband were her life , she talked about them all the time it was so heartwarming. The world is going to miss her so much . She still had much left to do and give . Life is just not fair . We love you Kimmy ❤️ rest in peace
